

Priests of the Temple of Love

We are currently forming a circle around you. We are the priests of the Temple of Heavenly Love; priests and priestesses for we are your brothers and sisters. And today, we want to touch your heart with our energy: the energy of Unconditional Love, of Infinite Love of Life for each of you; the Infinite Love of the Life that is active in you.

We want to talk to you about this Love I order to vibrate a special cord in your heart, touch your soul, open a door to the Great Truth that inhabits you. A great door that, in fact, few of you dare to open because you judge yourself, because your definition of perfection is so very far from the definition of perfection that Life has.

This definition that we have of perfection encompasses all the activities, the colors, the frequencies of the Great Life. And in this, our understanding is different from yours. Your definition of perfection is so rigid. It is based on your 3rd dimensional world which is dominated by the ego, by the ego mind, dominated by fear, dominated by limitations, dominated by the formatting that humanity has undergone for thousands, thousands and thousands of years.

Well! Today we, the Priests of the Infinite Love, priests and priestesses, brothers and sisters of your heart, form this circle around you because, when our eyes are on you, we admire the perfection of Life, the perfection of Life in action in each of you, the perfection of Life that grows in each of you, that explores in each of you, that creates in each of you.

Well! If you adopted this mantra:

"I am the perfection of Life now. I'm perfect! Every day more and more, every second more and more, every minute more and more, this perfection inhabits me, transforms me and transforms my perception of who I am, of who this physical body is, of what my life is now in this dimension. This perfection, I live it and I discover it and I accept it, I accept it with unconditional love."

For, you see, each of you represents an experience of the Great Life, an experience of the Consciousness One, a portion of the Great Consciousness One that explores, creates, grows, marvels; for your frequency is unique to each of you. All that is missing to this frequency in the present moment in order for this frequency to feel the joy of Life, the joy of living, the joy of being a limitless child, a creator, is your perception of yourself; it is a small change in the perception of yourself, of Life, of the action of the Great Life in you and around you.

All that is missing is a small adjustment to this perfection, a small adjustment which, in truth, is crucial. As soon as this small adjustment would be made, you would stop suffering, you would stop being afraid, you would stop living in anxiety, insecurity and poverty at all levels of your being: poverty of imagination, poverty of energy, poverty of health. All those states, all those frequencies that are not compatible with the abundance of the Great Life in all things.

It is this perception of yourself and life that is your greatest limitation: this perception needs to be changed. The 5th dimension requires that this look that you put on yourself and on life be a little modified to harmonize with the Great Life. Well, that starts with your intent. Do you want to change the way you look at yourself? Do you want to transform your view of Life? Do you want to experience a change in your life? Do you want to live the Great Life, live differently, experience joy? Do you want to change?

Your answers to these questions are what will trigger or not the changes within you, that will trigger or not frequencies around you. If you indicate to the Great Life that is within you, that is alive within you; for if it were not present within you, you would not be able to use this physical body, it would have died long ago, you would have returned to the Worlds of Light long ago.

Since you are in this living physical body, you cannot pretend to be separated from Life. This Great Life is already in action inside you, but its action is limited, very limited. Observe: does your body regenerate itself day by day? Does this physical body you use reflect the same appearance as when you were twenty-five? This body has that possibility, but what's stopping it? It's your vision of life. Your definition of Life capacity within you. It is that simple. It is the only reason, why? Because Life obeys you!

The Great Life inside you, obeys you! It obeys your beliefs! It obeys the slightest thought, the slightest emotion that passes through you! It obeys because you are the Almighty Being, the Consciousness One that commands from this physical body!

Can you feel the truth of these words, children of the Earth?

Can you feel the energy of those words in you right now?

Can you choose to open your heart to welcome this truth, to welcome this new way of looking at yourself, of perceiving?

This new way of opening your heart to the unlimited Life that is inside you. This Life of all possibilities, this Life of all magic, of all power, of all the Creation Love that is within you. It starts with you. You are the Alpha and the Omega, you are the Supreme Authority that commands the Universe that is around you and within you. The greatest authority is you! The greatest authority to transform your life is you!

Everything starts from you. You are the ultimate starting point for any change, any creation in your life, in your experiences in this dimension. It is so essential to understand these words, to understand the truth behind these words; the depth of Life, of its action in you, behind these words.

Well, then! Today, we form this circle around you. Take the time to feel the Light Rays that we are sending you at this moment: Rays of awakening, Rays of opening, Rays of welcoming the Life power that inhabits you, Rays of transformation, Rays of change, Rays of resurrection.

You are the initiator of your life, of the changes in your life! I is you, nobody but you! No one is responsible for your life but yourself. Your life is the manifestation of all that you have accepted as limiting truth in your life to this day, as limitation of what life is, from the definition you assign to life, to this day. Then, choose the no limits, the unlimited; choose infinity, choose True Life, choose freedom. And so it will be! But it is up to you to choose and make this frequency grow in you, because when I say "Freedom", it is a frequency of Freedom. You connect to the frequency of Freedom and the Consciousness One that knows the Freedom frequency, connects you to this even greater frequency. It allows your heart to open itself, to welcome this Freedom frequency and to integrate it even more forcefully internally to allow you to open your eyes even wider on the understanding of the word "Freedom", on the frequency of the word "Freedom", on the awareness of the word "Freedom", because "Freedom" is a living Consciousness.

Then, as a creator who manipulates energies all day long, you could put both hands before you facing each other; conscious of your creative power, conscious of the Life power within you; and call this Freedom. The energy of Freedom, the consciousness of Freedom, call it into your hands.

Call this energy, this real, Divine, Sacred, Eternal, Infinite frequency in your hands. Since you call it; it comes, it obeys! I would say it's expecting your call. The Consciousness One awaits your calls every second, children of the Earth, do you realize it? It is awaiting to help you, to support you. Then, call this Freedom in your hands; feel its energy, its consciousness, its life. And, then, deposit this energy in this physical body, in this heart, in the cells of your physical body and feel that you anchor the True Freedom consciousness in you, in your cells that are energy consciousness, living consciousness. And you feel that this True Freedom transforms them, changes their frequency, changes your way of thinking, changes the frequency of your thoughts, your emotions.

You create a different universe, you transform your inner universe with the energy of the True Sacred Divine Freedom. And you breathe this Freedom, you feel it acting inside you, since you are a creator, since you manipulate energies all day long.

So why don't you, the creator, use this creative power to transform your thoughts, transform the way you see, perceive, transform the vital energy of your physical body, transform the emotions that populate your imagination, transform your creative power.

Do you understand? And all this, of course, with Love, respect, connection with the Consciousness One that is within you, that guides you wisely, with Love, patience, softness, delicacy. You the creators, you the almighty ones, do you recognize yourself?

These are the words that we, your brothers and sisters of the Temple of Infinite Love, wanted to address to you, to plant a Light seed, a new way of perceiving yourself as all-powerful creators, walking on the surface of this Earth.

Thank you!
