

St-Germain and the young children

My name is St-Germain, your brother of Eternity. I am with you in this now moment, in this very sacred moment. This moment belongs to planet Earth, this moment belongs to Eternity. So, I am inviting you to extend your consciousness, to merge your heart with the heart of this planet, the heart of Consciousness, of the Consciousness One that is supporting this dimension. You are among those holding the Flame of Love in this dimension.

In this now moment you are surrounded by many thousands of Angels of the Violet Flame. The Flame is transmuting and balancing a huge amount of energies in this now moment. You are not alone for this ceremony. We will be using this ceremony to bring a new balance in the hearts of all the young children in incarnation in your dimension in this now moment, all the young children of age seven and under on all the continents.

So just bring each one of these children in your heart, bathe them with the love of your heart, the love of the Sacredness of Life inside of you.

We are working to bring more balance to the hearts of these young children who have taken an important role for the expansion of the light on planet Earth.

Thank you!
