Small message: you all have power!

I bless each one of your hearts, beloved ones. I do not know if you realize this, but this ceremony shall be done according to your intention, according to your beliefs, according to what you want to manifest in this dimension and it will expand and touch the heart of this planet, this galaxy, this universe.

So, I just want to remind each one of you, you all have power! The power of Source is inside of you, and today, as one heart, you have manifested to touch the heart of each human being on this planet. Realize it has been done, everybody has been touched by an angel. There were millions of angels ready to carry on your intention, to touch the heart of your brothers and sisters.

So, I am telling you, do not doubt your power! About the power of Love inside you, inside your heart, inside your very own life. Life is power! Life is God in action! You are God in action in this dimension when you join together with a goal, a definite goal, a purpose, you are creating! You are manifesting! You are changing the frequency of your dimension.

Be conscious of your power my brothers and sisters, be conscious of the power of Source inside of you. It has no limit and no boundary. There is no time, no space, there is only unlimited power and it is yours. That is your gift from Life to Life. Your gift for having said "yes" to be in this dimension, on this planet, in this moment.

So, walk among your brothers and sisters and be conscious of who you are! Be conscious of that power that you carry inside of you! It is a truth! Just practice. You can test it. You can challenge it. I am inviting you to challenge this life force inside of you. It will prove itself to you! Do not hesitate to be yourself, to walk toward this Life Force that came into manifestation, to walk among your brothers and sisters.

I am inviting each one of you to walk toward yourself, to know thyself, to learn about yourself, to discover your dreams, your true nature and the frequency of your heart. You came in this dimension for a purpose otherwise you would not be here. You would not even exist! I am here to remind you that you are a Divine Being with a purpose in life, a divine purpose, and that is the truth. And I hope this truth will carry you, will give you wings, will give you faith, courage to walk on your path, the path you have chosen for this lifetime.

My life, my energy is supporting you. I am walking with you often to support your joy, to support your light, to accompany you. You are not alone! You are surrounded by Life, the Life Force.

Simply manifest the intention to connect with Life. By manifesting this intention, you are triggering an action in the whole Universe and all living life forms will start walking toward you connecting with you, helping you open a new antenna, a new frequency so that you can feel them, so that you can understand them, communicate with them. Everything is possible, beloved friends. Everything is possible! Do not limit yourself!

These are the words I wanted to share with you today in this blessed moment of Eternity. You have decided to start your life, to start your daily life. So just be yourself, discover who you are and walk among your brothers and sisters with love, respect and compassion.

Thank you!
