

Invitation and Archangel Michael

Invitation

I am inviting each one of you to enter into the sacredness of your heart and feel the power of Life inside you, the power of Love inside you, the power of the Life force inside, alive inside you. And as a Creator, as One Heart we are asking Archangel Michael to come and lead this ceremony of Pure Love, Pure Freedom, Pure Respect for our brothers and sisters of the other side.

Archangel Michael

In this area, in the sacredness of this circle you are protected. You are under my divine and high powerful protection. I am Archangel Michael and I am coming with my legion of Angels to protect the purity of your heart, the sacredness of the love you carry.

As we are forming this circle with you, we are setting the intention with the purest Love of our heart to welcome our brothers and sisters of the darkness, to welcome those ones that have forgotten the frequency of Love.

As One Heart, we are creating a sacred space filled with the Purest Love, the Love of the Creator, the Love of the Oneness, the Love of the Source Itself; asking the Source to place his own heart in the middle of our circle to welcome his children. To welcome his own Life, alive in the heart of all those children of which you are so afraid, of which you are distrustful.

Today, beloved children of the purest Love, I am inviting you to observe the heart of those ones that have been called. I am asking you, inviting you to look at the spark of Light inside each one of them. Without that spark of Light, they would not exist. They carry the spark of Light of Love but they cannot feel it anymore.

So today I am inviting you to manifest the intention to ignite this spark of Love inside of them with your own Love. Feel that they are receiving it with tenderness, respect, astonishment. 3.56 So softly, wrap these hearts with your own Love, the purity of your Love, embracing these hearts, touching them softly like a delicate treasure. Whispering: “You are loved! You are loved by the Universe! This Universe loves you! Source loves you! Source never forgot you! Source always considers you are his/her child!”

And let the Divine Peace find a nest in these hearts, the Divine Calmness, the Divine Peace speaking of Love, speaking of Eternity. As we, the Angels of the Glory of God, are enfolding these beloved ones with your Love, we are closing this time window; filling these hearts with the Light from your Love, the Light of the Creator inside them.

Thank you for asking. Thank you for that Love that will participate to the transformation of this world.

I spoke in the name of Love. I spoke in the name of the creatorship, Creator that you are. I spoke in the name of the Power of Life inside you! Thank You!
